

Class Notes

Introduction to the Hebrew Bible

Reading Skills

Dr. Tim Mackie

Have you ever wondered where the Bible came from? This class is all about the origins of the Hebrew Bible/Old Testament and how to develop the skills necessary for reading it well. We'll explore the biblical and historical data about the production of the biblical scrolls, focusing on why and how these texts were formed into a unified collection. We'll also cover some of the most important skills for reading biblical narrative and poetry so that you can take your own study of the Bible to the next level.

Last updated on: October 8, 2024

Table of Contents

Module 1: The Shape of the Hebrew Bible

Session 1: What on Earth Is the Hebrew Bible?

Session 2: How Jesus and the Apostles Read Their Bibles

Session 3: The Ancient Shape of Scriptures

Session 4: Seams Between Texts in the Dead Sea Scrolls

Session 5: The Prophet to Come: The Seams of the Torah and Prophets

Session 6: The Prophet to Come: Psalms 1 and 2

Module 2: The Origin of the Hebrew Bible

Session 7: An Important Premise: The Inspiration of Scripture

Session 8: What the Torah Says About the Bible's Origins

Session 9: What the Prophets Say About the Bible's Origin

Session 10: The Origin of the Bible From a Historical Perspective

Session 11: The Hebrew Bible as a Mosaic

Session 12: The Hebrew Bible Is Like an Aspen Grove

Session 13: The Different "Encyclopedias" of Authors and Readers

Module 3: Interpreting Hebrew Poetry

Session 14: How Biblical Poetry Communicates

Session 15: Common Poetic Conventions in Biblical Hebrew

Session 16: How Hebrew Parallelism Works

Session 17: Macro-Level Repetition in Biblical Poetry

Module 4: Interpreting Biblical Narrative

Session 18: Literary Representation and Reality

Session 19: Plot in Biblical Narrative: The Story of Jonah

Session 20: Plots and Subplots

Session 21: Characterization and Setting in Biblical Narrative

Module 5: Repeated Words and Design Patterns

Session 22: Design Patterns and Literary Units

Session 23: Identifying Repeated Words

Session 24: Repeated Words and Literary Design

Session 25: Repeated Words Between Juxtaposed Literary Units

Session 26: Repeated Words Between Distant Literary Units

Session 27: Narrative Analogy: Sarai and Genesis 3

Session 28: Narrative Analogy: Jacob and Genesis 3

Session 29: Design Patterns in the New Testament

Module 1: The Shape of the Hebrew Bible

SESSIONS 1-6

What is the Hebrew Bible? Explore this and how it's organized as the TaNaK.