

Session 31: Discussing Different Ways of Representing Reality

Key Takeaways

- We use various, equally valid forms of communication to tell the truth, even when talking about the same thing.

In this session, we discuss the John Walton quote in session 30 and its implications for interpreting the early chapters of Genesis.

This session has no notes

Reflection Question

What are your biggest challenges or questions when reading Genesis? Has this discussion helped you resolve some of those challenges or at least hold them in tension with the message of the biblical authors?