

Session 20: Reflecting on the Torah

Key Takeaways

- The new humanity doesn't do away with the law. Rather, it creates people who can actually live by the just requirements of the law.
- Paul views the laws of the Torah as wisdom literature, a source of divine wisdom.

This session covers the notes from sessions 19

Reflection Question

Paul has a very nuanced view of the Torah. How would you explain his view of the law? Does he see it as a good thing, a bad thing, neither, or both?
