

Session 14: Jesus Passes the Test

Key Takeaways

- In the second test, the slanderer tempts Jesus to exert control and make the Father do what he said he would.
- Jesus' third test is not about whether he will assume cosmic rule over the nations, but about how he will come into that power.
- Jesus' three wilderness tests correspond to his three prayers in the garden of Gethsemane. The garden is where he completes the test that started in the desert.
- Jesus, the Son of God, is a new Adam and Eve, a new David, and a new Israel—he succeeds where they failed.

This session covers the notes from session 13

Reflection Question

What is being tested in the slanderer's temptation for Jesus to cast himself down from the highest point of the temple?
