

Session 5: Reflecting on How To Read the Bible

Key Takeaways

- We're meeting another mind when we read the Bible, so we have to work hard to make sure we're not hearing our own voice reflecting back to us.

This session has no notes

Reflection Question

What might it look like for you to embody, reflect, and model the importance of the Hebrew Bible to the people in your context (ministry, church, neighborhood, family, etc.)? How could you invite other people into the story that defined reality for Jesus?